

Great Times Eight

Congratulations to Chairman's Club members and business partners Susan Peterson and John Peterson who received the top Mark Hughes Bonus Award at the 2005 25th Anniversary Extravaganza, becoming the #1 Distributors in the world for the eighth year in a row.

Here's how they got started, what they've learned and where they're headed. Like so many other Distributors, Susan Peterson and John Peterson each began their journey with a dream. Now look at where they are!

SUSAN PETERSON

When Susan Peterson was an interior designer, her friend introduced her to the business opportunity. At first, she wasn't interested. "But when my financial outlook changed," recalls Susan, "so did my attitude about direct sales."

With hard work and consistency, Susan has reached unprecedented levels of success with Herbalife, most recently being awarded the title of #1 Distributor for the eighth year in a row. From her home in Colorado, Susan, a mother of two, continues building her business at a phenomenal rate. She notes, "Herbalife has gone from a powerful vision to a thriving business to one of the most successful nutrition and weight-loss companies in the world."*

JOHN PETERSON

When a friend first told John Peterson about Herbalife, John was working in international-resort real estate. He turned the Herbalife business opportunity down, thinking he was "above doing something like direct sales." However, when his financial situation changed a year later, John called his friend and decided to give Herbalife a try.

Since then, John has gone on to achieve astounding success with his Herbalife business, becoming the #1 Distributor in the world for eight straight years. "The bottom line is Herbalife improves lives," John says. "It's improved my life and so many others." John continues to lead a hugely successful Herbalife organization that shows no signs of slowing its amazing growth. "Herbalife is 25 years old, but we're just getting started," he says. John has two children and now lives in Brazil and the U.S.*
